

Waikato Show Membership Application

The Waikato Winter Show Association is a registered charity that has been running a community event for more than 108 years. Originally established in 1908 by Hamilton business people, it was set up to bring rural people into Hamilton City and showcase the seasonal aspects.

Going back to our roots, the show has a strong community focus that is built on attracting various community groups within these services cultural, educational, wellbeing, creative, business, agricultural, pastoral, entertainment communities and services groups and establishing working relationships with these community groups.

At just $35 per year you will receive:

- ❖ Quarterly e-newsletter
- ❖ Voting rights at the Annual General Meeting and Special General Meetings
- ❖ A three-day family pass to the Show (2 adults & 3 children = $120 value)
- ❖ Special deals for members only during the year and at the Show
